

"Dra. Mariola Macías Award"

for the best scientific contribution in Natural Product Sciences carried out by a young researcher during the year

The Phytochemical Society of Europe is delighted to announce a new Award in the memory of Dra. Mariola Macías, an excellent professional, an emergency doctor, a Doctor in Immunology and above all, a great person. She worked intensively not only in clinical functions but also in research against Covid19 and was passionate about Natural Products.

Applicants for the 2022 Award should submit their application to the PSE President before April 24, 2022 (franz.bucar@uni-graz.at).

Criteria for the Award:

- Age <35 years
- First author in a publication in the field of Natural Product Sciences in a Q1 journal (publishing date 2021 – 2022)
- Nomination by a person other than the interested party

Applications must include:

- A 1-2 page Curriculum Vitae of the candidate
- An electronic file of the publications
- A letter of support by the person who is nominating the candidate

The PSE committee will assess the submissions and select the awardee before the end of April 2022.

The Award will include a free registration at the 2022 Young Scientists Meeting of PSE (pse-ysm.marinenatprod.gr), €350 in cash, and PSE membership for 3 years.
